Summary of the activity:

Eco Club of Arya Vidyapeeth College in association with Assam Science Technology and Environment Council and sponsorship of Ministry of EF&CC organised a two days workshop on Vermicomposting and Solid Waste management on 28th and 29th May 2024. 110 students from 11 School Eco Clubs participated in the event. Main resource person of Vermicomposting was Dr Rajlaskhmi Devi, Retd. Professor of IASST and Dr Bhaswatee Baroowa of APART acted as main resource person of Solid Waste management. Dr Ajoy Kr Das of Dept of Botany and Dr Anindita Deka of Dept of Zoology also acted as speakers. Dr Papori Devi demonstrated the Vermicomposting procedure for household use. On 28th the workshop was inaugurated by Vice Principal of the College Ms. Anita Talukdar. District Academic Secretary of Kamrup (M) Ms. Purabi Kalita was also present on the occasion. In the last session of workshop a competition was organised among different participating schools on recycling of solid waste. A procession of students created awareness against solid waste around the campus under the supervision of Eco Club teacher members Ms Minakshi Mallik, Dr Karabi Rajbongshi, Parag Saharia, Dr Pearl Sanchayeta Gogoi and Dr Jahnobi Gogoi. The Club is grateful for the guidance of the Principal Dr P K Bhattacharyya for successful completion of the event. Support of the whole office staff, specially Trailokya Das was instrumental in carrying out the process specially in harsh weather conditions.
